IMPORTANT NOTES

Data Protection Act 1998

We may store your information on a computer and use it for administration, risk assessment, research and statistical purposes, marketing purposes and for crime prevention (see further details below). We will only disclose your personal details to third parties, if it is necessary for the performance of your contract with us.

In order to assess the terms of the insurance contract or administer claims which arise, we will need to collect data which the Data Protection Act defines as sensitive such as medical history or criminal convictions. By proceeding with this contract you will signify your consent to such information being processed by the Insurers or their agents.

We will keep your information secure at all times. In certain circumstances, for example for systems administration purposes, we may have to transfer your information to another country, which may be a country outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). By proceeding with your insurance application, we will assume you are agreeable for us to transfer your information to a country outside the EEA.

Should you wish to receive a copy of the information we hold on you please contact the Compliance Officer, Brit Insurance Limited at 55 Bishopsgate, London, EC2N 3AN.

About your Insurer

This insurance will be underwritten by member companies of the Brit Insurance Holdings plc. Group (BIH) of companies who are authorised and regulated by the Financial Services Authority.

The location of the risk will determine which company within the BIH group will provide you with a quotation. Your quotation (and policy) will indicate which insurer within the group is underwriting the risk. Signing this application form signifies your acceptance of the appropriate insurer.

For further information about companies in the Brit Insurance Holdings group, please refer to the notes below.

DECLARATION

The information that you have provided to us forms the basis of your insurance policy. It is important that you advise us of all material information, and immediately of any change in information. Please note if you are in doubt whether or not any information is material, it should be disclosed. Failure to disclose information may prejudice your rights in the event of a claim.

A material fact is one that is likely to influence an Underwriter's judgement and acceptance of your proposal. If your proposal is a renewal of an existing policy, it should also include any change in the facts previously advised to Underwriters.

I/ We declare that the statements and particulars given in this Proposal are correct and that no material fact has been omitted. I/ We agree that this Proposal together with any other information supplied shall form the basis of the contract.
